ARCHITECTURAL & HISTORICAL

Reading the Ruins & other historical tours:

Be your own historian on this wonderful tour of our local architecture, cemeteries and History. We send along wonderful packets and maps full of information so you can easily guide yourself around the lake. Benefit from many of the local Historical Society stops along the way. Enjoy the Inn signature cooler filled with lunch goodies, beverages and local snacks. Later in the day, enjoy a carriage ride where you'll enjoy spectacular views of our wonderful lake, dinner and our signature S'mores fireside.

Pricing for a 2-night stay per person begins at $675.00 per couple, plus applicable taxes and gratuities and a historic gift from the Inn! Too much to do in just 2 days, why not stay a third night at a discounted rate (seasonal and based on availability)

ARTS AND CULTURAL

★ A Garden for All Seasons (Two-day ceramics workshop)

Join the Black Sheep Inn and Goff Creek Pottery for an outstanding opportunity, 3 night stay, 2 days of hands on pottery with Mary Lynn, all meals, wine tasting and other extra surprises await you. Begin your days at 10am, end at 3pm. What stirs the souls of gardeners during winter? Why, planning next years garden, of course. To those with a green thumb, now is always the time for gardening. During this two-day workshop, gardeners will design and create pottery to enhance their verdant realms. Handmade tiles, a garden plaque or a charming toad house. Working with garden sculptor Mary Lynn Good, attendees will have access to the premium materials used to create the frost-proof ware that Goff Creek Pottery is known for, pieces guaranteed to endure for ages.

Four hours of individual instruction per day, with ample time for lunch and breaks. Up to 25 lbs of clay per person -- unlimited use of tools, stamps, colorful slips, glaze and firing. Students should expect to make one to two projects during this class (more available for additional charge). Please bring shirt, pants and shoes suitable for working with clay, for a change of clothes at the studio. No previous clay experience required. Shipping charges additional.

Price begins at $700.00 per person or $785 per couple. (Allow for 4 hours of studio time, with instruction) plus applicable taxes and gratuities

★ Love Blooms Eternal: (One-day ceramics workshop)

Romance comes alive with your hands and your hearts during your stay at the Black Sheep Inn. Enjoy a side-by-side spa treatment, hands on pottery class and a candle lit dinner. A bouquet of red roses awaits you both in your room with a hand written card and many other romantic surprises await you on your journey together in our "A rose is a rose is a rose..." Express your love of flowers and each other in this workshop focusing on decorative flowerpots and planters. Learn to decorate and embellish wheel thrown forms prepared by garden sculptor and potter Mary Lynn Good, made with the same premium materials used to create the frost-proof ware that Goff Creek Pottery is known for, pieces guaranteed to endure for ages.

Three hours of individual instruction, lunch to follow. A pair of pots or one large planter per couple -- unlimited use of tools, stamps, colorful slips, glaze and firing included. Please bring shirt, pants and shoes suitable for working with clay, as a change of clothes at the studio. (More available for additional charge)

✦Writers retreat: Aspiring or professional writers!

Join writers Lafayette Wattles and Kelly Creagh for hands on approach to writing. Creating Character-Driven Stories: learn techniques for creating interesting, dynamic characters, as well as how to develop your own unique narrative voice. There will be a number of exercises focusing on character development, how to let your characters take the lead, and the use of language to reveal a characters personality through voice. Enjoy the company of these two amazing individuals who have taken the plunge to follow their hearts in writing for a living.

While here at the Black Sheep Inn, awaken with morning Yoga exercises, breakfast and on to your writing activities with Lafayette and Kelly. Additional outside activities, a private wine tasting and visiting with a bookmaker are part of your experience.

Workshop Leaders: A graduate of Spalding University's MFA in Creative Writing program, Kelly Creagh works for the Louisville Free Public Library, specializing in teen services. Nevermore, the first novel of Kelly's two-book deal with Simon & Schuster will be out in August 2010. One of Kelly's specialties is her ability to create unique characters. Nevermore, is about a cheerleader named Isobel who is forced to do a research assignment about Edgar Allan Poe with a dark mysterious student named Varen. As Isobel ventures deeper and deeper into the dream world Varen has created through the pages of his notebook, a realm where the terrifying stories of Edgar Allan Poe come to life, her world begins to unravel around her. Isobel discovers that dreams, like words, hold more power than she ever imagined and the most frightening realities are those of the mind. Now she must find a way to reach Varen before he is consumed by the shadows of his own nightmares. His life depends on it!

Lafayette Wattles writes poetry and prose and is also a graduate of Spalding University's MFA in Creative Writing program. Over the past two years, over 80 of his poems have appeared in over 70 journals. He was nominated for Best New Poets 2009 and for a 2010 Pushcart Prize, and his poem "Sometimes a Deer" was chosen for Best of the Net 2008. Lafayette specializes in narrative poetry of witness and in prose that features compelling characters and voice.

Holidays in the Finger Lakes:

Come spend some time getting ready for your holiday season. The Black Sheep Inn & The Crafting Cottage Present: Holiday Gift Giving Workshop Weekends

Discover how relaxing it can be creating handmade gifts for your friends and family this year. The Crafting Cottage has partnered with The Black Sheep Inn to encourage you to pamper yourself while you receive the inspiration, supplies and instruction to complete three beautiful projects designed for gift giving. We can even help you wrap the handmade gifts at the end of the workshop.

In this one workshop, you will make three very different gifts:

Vintage Note Card Gift Box Set and Journal

You will create a beautiful vintage-looking set of note cards that are stored in a lovely gift box that will coordinate with your cards, all of which you will make by hand, including the box. You will then create a journal in the vintage style to compliment the gift boxed set of cards. This will complete your handcrafted gift set for a very special person on your list.

Designing Time

Enjoy being inspired with this gift-giving project. Once you make the first one, you will want to make several more – including one for yourself! You will decorate a 12" x 12" clock using specialty papers with many design choices plus an enormous variety of embellishments will help you in creating a theme for a particular room, person or concept. The ideas will be endless. You will have a fully functional clock designed and handmade by you to give as a very unique gift.

Special Memories Album

Whether you are a scrap booker crafter or not, you will enjoy creating this gift for anyone who has pictures they would love to be able to simply place in an album – no work involved! This unique scrapbook album is fast and easy to make as it is only 6" x 6." The spine of the album will be composed of several round discs, which make it very easy for the recipient to move their pages around with ease or add pages down the road effortlessly. We'll help you design and complete this special gift album for memories.

Your stay includes a 3-night stay, indulgent holiday breakfasts, a warm and wonderful traditionally prepared pre-holiday dinner awaits your return from a day of creativeness. As a treat in the late afternoon, enjoy a horse drawn carriage ride. Consider booking the Inn for your friends or family of 10-12 guests, contact Debbie for pricing and details. Build your own Custom Ginger Bread House all ready for your special holiday decorations. If you arrive on the weekend of December 11 ~ 14, 2009, you will have the pleasure of enjoying some time at the Middletown Historical Society at their Joyous Noel Gathering with a Holiday buffet on Sunday from 1 to 4 PM, a lighting celebration on Saturday at 1 PM.

Price per couple begins at $1175, plus applicable taxes and gratuity. Enjoy a special holiday gift on the Inn. So much to make, so little time, why not stay another night with our special discount rate. Please contact the Inn for details.
